State Minister of Industries, Dr. Ayatullah Durrani's extremely prejudiced remarks on Mastung incident - 09/28/2011

Due to poor sound quality and his angry reaction to the interviewer, we were not able to comprehend a fraction of Mr. Durrani's response in the segment referring to target killings of Hazaras. But the reconstruction of the entire sentence is unmistakable and translates to:

"Many [Hazaras] have a hobby to get asylum. They use this [genocide] as a pretext to get asylum in Australia."

Mr. Durrani here categorically references all victims from "Bamyan, Afghanistan" (a common prejudiced remark when trying to paint the local Hazaras as "outsiders").

Dr. Durrani is a PhD in Physics and taught Physics at the Balochistan University in Quetta. He is a member of Pakistan's National Assembly and currently the "State Minister of Industries" from the ruling Pakistan People's Party (PPP). He was born in Mastung - the small town where Hazaras were singled out and killed by a "firing squad."
